BETSY JEFF PENN, MILLSTONE, SERTOMA, SWANNANOVA & THE EASTERN CENTER OFFER:

4-H SUMMER CAMP

AGES: 8 TO 14 DATES AND COSTS VARY (Check with Center's website for availability)

Traditional one-week camp sessions provide age-appropriate, small-group experiences in a fun, noncompetitive environment. By day, we swim, canoe, work on a craft, learn about nature, explore outdoor living skills, tackle the ropes courses. In the evenings, we learn about different cultures, create campfire programs, share skits and talents, and learn games and dances, all while building lifelong friendships. It's an experience that youth can build their futures on.

4-H SUMMER CAMP

JUNE 22-27, JUNE 29-JULY 4, AND JULY 6-11 AGES 8-12 COST $395 PER WEEK

Our hallmark Summer Camp program is proud to offer an outdoor learning experience to campers which focuses on experiential education. Age appropriate programs are offered to small activity groups in a way that combines fun and education. Campers have many options – from our low and high ropes course to fishing or nature. With our diverse recreation programming, there are many great options for everyone. Evening activities range from talent shows, International night, to our traditional campfires. Many of our activities are experiences that campers have yet to experience, like crabbing or camp-outs! Campers also help the Eastern 4-H Center build on its young but growing traditions.

ADVENTURE CAMP

JUNE 22-27, JUNE 29-JULY 4, AND JULY 6-11 AGES 13-14 COST $395 PER WEEK

Adventure Camp is the perfect experience for youth who love camp but have aged out of traditional summer camp programs. Programming is tailored to improve on skills that have already been acquired. Learning new canoeing techniques, backpacking and campouts, or the climbing wall are just a few ways Adventure Campers might spend their days. Team work and communication skills are put to the test on an overnight canoeing trip. Adventure Camp is a fantastic way to spend a week at the Eastern 4-H Center.

L-I-T ADVENTURES (Leaders in Training)

JUNE 22-27, JUNE 29-JULY 4, AND JULY 6-11 AGES 15-17 COST $395 LIMIT 6 PER SESSION

The LIT program (Leaders in Training) is a week long experience for participants who are between 15 and 17 years old. The LIT program is designed to teach participants personal responsibility and character development. Participants will help out in the cabins, program areas, and at meals. LIT's will assist staff in many ways, but will also assist campers throughout their visit.

MARINE SCIENCE AND SAILING CAMP

JUNE 29-JULY 4 AGES 12-16 COST $395 LIMIT 40 CAMPERS

Marine Science and Sailing Camp is the perfect opportunity to learn sailing, study various forms of marine life, and enjoy the fellowship of other summer campers. At the Eastern 4-H Center, learning takes center stage in an effort to provide a unique and fun experience. Whether studying fish in the Wet Lab, examining tiny creatures under a microscope, or learning to use the winds to navigate the beautiful Albemarle Sound, Marine Science and Sailing Camp will certainly "WET" your appetite for all things aquatic.

CLOVERBUD CAMP

JUNE 29-JULY 3 AGES 5-8 COST $225 LIMIT 50 CAMPERS

An adventure-filled 5 day/4 night experience is perfect for younger campers and first time campers. Our increased camper to staff ratios and smaller activity groups allow us to meet the unique needs of youngsters. Cloverbud campers get to experience the traditional summer camp programs offered at the Eastern 4-H Center.

CAMP CANVASBACK

JULY 13-18 AGES: 12-17 COST: CALL FOR FEE

Camp Canvasback is the perfect opportunity for the younger outdoor enthusiast to become knowledgeable in wetland conservation and hunting safety. With help from the North Carolina Waterfowl Association and the North Carolina Wildlife Resource Commission, Camp Canvasback spotlights North Carolina's waterfowl along with proper hunter education, safe gun use, and waterfowl conservation. Participants will have the opportunity to earn their hunter education card, learn many waterfowl species, and gain valuable safe shooting techniques. For information on partial scholarships, contact the 4-H Eastern Center at 252-797-4800.
